

CEDREN

Centre for Environmental Design of Renewable Energy

FME
CENTRE FOR ENVIRONMENT
FRIENDLY ENERGY
RESEARCH

The Norwegian Institute for Nature
Research/CEDREN have the pleasure to invite you to a Side-event

at the Scandic Hotel room Hødden on Challenges in mitigating bird electrocution
Thursday 24 November 2011 between 1800-2000 hrs

Programme

- 1800-1815: Opening and welcome (Heidi Sørensen - State Secretary for the Ministry of the Environment).
- 1815-1840: Dr. Kjetil Bevanger - Research activities on birds and power lines at the Centre for Environmental Design of Renewable Energy (CEDREN), Norway.
- 1840-1905: Dr. Stefan Küppers - Fitting bird protection markings to overhead lines from a helicopter. RWE (Rheinisch-Westfälischen Elektrizitätswerk).
- 1905-1925: Dr. Markus Nipkow, Naturschutzbund Deutschland (NABU). Progress on mitigating bird electrocution in Germany.
- 1925-2000. Conclusions and discussion with the floor. Moderator: State Secretary Heidi Sørensen.

NORWEGIAN DIRECTORATE
FOR NATURE MANAGEMENT

Refreshment and sandwiches

The arrangement is sponsored by the Norwegian Directorate for Nature Management and RWE